Elin's Soapbox

by Elin Winkler

Ah, summer time- time for vacations, barbecues and of course, conventions! Last month we showcased photos from Project A-kon, one of our favorite conventions to attend, right here in toasty Texas. Next month, fans will catch us in San Diego, California at Comic Con International, the biggest comic convention in the United States! It's August 13-16 and we can't wait, since we're hoping San Diego will be cooler than San Antonio! We'll have our own booth at the convention this year and we'll feature several of our creators during the convention for signings and sketches, like Chris Knowles, Will Allison, Michael Vega, Terrie Smith and many more! (Even we don't know how many folks will show up yet!) Comic Con International also features just about any comic pro you can think of and I personally think anyone who likes comics should go at least once in their lifetime. It's really amazing to see all the companies, fans and pros take over the San Diego Convention Center and surrounding area for four days. We hope to see many of you there!

The Comic Con International is also where the Eisner Awards are given out. The Eisners are awards for excellence in comics, sort of like the Oscars, and are named after Will Eisner, one of the living treasures of the comic field. This year, I'm pleased to see that Castle Waiting by Linda Medley was nominated. I can't think of a more deserving book, and I hope Linda wins! If you haven't read Castle Waiting yet, I highly recommend it. In a more superhero vein- and I know it's rare for me to recommend anything in that genre, but hey, good comics are good comics, regardless- Alan Davis' JLA: The Nail miniseries is really how superhero comics should be. Gorgeous art, good story-telling and more cameos than you can shake a stick at make for an extremely enjoyable read. I've been a fan of Davis since the late 80s though, so perhaps I'm a bit biased, but it's still a nice package, even down to the nice glossy paper.

Now, get yourself a cool glass of lemonade, a hefty stack of comics and your favorite sunglasses and enjoy some of that summer sunshine- just don't forget the sunscreen!

HYPER SPACE

KEEN COMIC ITEMS FOR PARTICULAR PEOPLE!

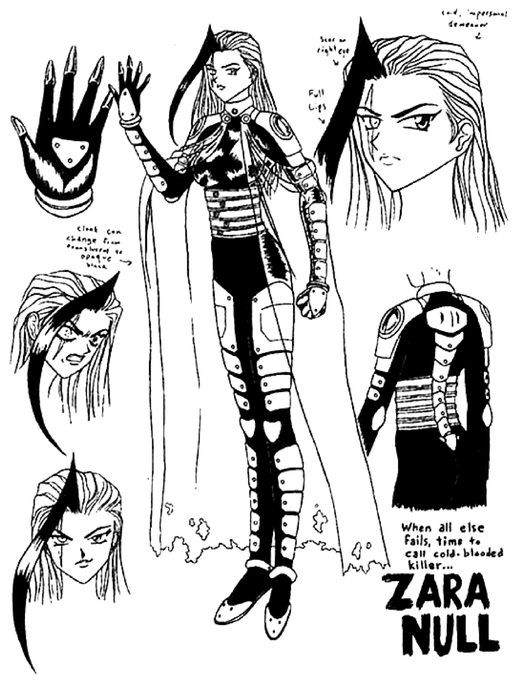

Last month we announced our plans to start our Manga Line! Of course, for those you who were living under a rock, the fun starts this September with Morning Glory #1! Next up (and the subject of this month's Hyper Space) is Trouble Express! Wanna know more? Here's the scoop:

In the future, most messages and freight can be sent through the interstellar reaches with lasers or cargo teleporters. However, some cargo is so rare, so important, or so downright dangerous that it must be carried by professionals. The semi-secret Trouble Express company is the best of these courier services, tackling the toughest missions that come along. The pay is incredible; the trick is staying alive to spend it!

Trouble Express is written and drawn by Will Allison, creator of Pervert Club! Shipments begin this November!
